occasion. Educationist Debjani Basu, who was a faculty at the Calcutta Montessori Training Centre, introduced the concept of Toondemy, which lets toddlers explore and fall in love with learning.

To foster the interest of the little ones, the school arranged several games and activities like clay modelling, art and craft, fun games, music and dance and health checkups by eminent doctors. The interactive session between the Dibyendu Sen Sharma, principal of Nopany High School with the guests, was very enriching and helpful in promoting holistic development of the children.

Nopany High School launched a play school, Nopaninos, in collaboration with Toondemy, a Singapore based education system following the NEP curriculum. The foundation school was formally launched on February 22.
